If you anticipate building or remodeling, it is well to remember that as much material and labor is required to build a distorted, unpleasing building, as for one attractive. I will furnish plans and drawings, in elevation and detail, with specifications, estimates and bills of material of every description, for Churches, Banking Houses, Schools, Villas, Cottages, Carriage Houses, Barns, Railroad Stations, Stores, Theatres, Opera Houses, Hotels, Monuments, etc. Special attention given to Ecclesiastical Architecture in all its details.

PETERSONS' ❋ 25 ❋ CENT ❋ SERIES.

T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia, Pa., are publishing a new 25 Cent Series of Popular and Fast Selling Books in paper covers, which were never before sold under $1.50 each in cloth. They are by far the cheapest and best selling series of novels for the money ever issued, and they are in sufficient variety to please young and old, grave and gay, and all classes of readers. The works are by the leading writers of this country and Europe, and for quality, neatness, popularity and cheapness this series has never been equalled, with not a dull line, and once taken up the reader will be loath to lay them down, being mostly charming love stories. Among the famous novelists represented in the Series are Mrs. Emma D. E. N. Southworth, Emile Zola, Caroline Lee Hentz, Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett, Lady Gladys Hamilton, Captain Hawley Smart, Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, Henry Greville, John Habberton, George Sand, Alexander Dumas, Emerson Bennett, and others. Over 100 now ready, and a New Volume will be published every two weeks.

Any Bookseller or News Dealer, anywhere at all, that is not selling "PETERSONS' NEW 25 CENT SERIES," we want them to order a sample lot direct of us, so they can see how fast selling they are. Showbills and circulars in profusion. Address all orders and letters for information to the publishers.

BEFORE INSURING YOUR LIFE

INVESTIGATE

THE LIFE RATE ENDOWMENT PLAN

—OF THE—

Union Central Life Ins. Co.

By this Plan not only are the dependent ones provided for in case of death, but provision for the later years of the insured himself is made if he lives.

The people are demanding this kind of insurance, so that all the leading companies are endeavoring to give them policies that contain at least some of the principles of our plan. But there is no plan yet so simple as the Life-Rate Endowment, such as the UNION CENTRAL has been issuing for so many years past.

We simply charge the ordinary life rate, the same as charged by this or any other company; the policy-holder pays the same amount each year, the dividends with all the accumulations remaining with the Company to the credit of each policy. In other words, we keep an individual account, in a business way, with each policy, taking the premiums paid, and all its share of interest and all profits of every description, and from this deducting each policy's share of the death losses and expenses, and when the policy has become self-sustaining, or when the policy has become matured we pay it in full. We never make any partial settlements; our policies, whether paid at death or maturity, are paid in full for the whole amount insured. It is not every one who can afford to pay the high rate charged by the different companies, but anyone can afford to pay the ordinary life-rate for a policy, either with limited payments or otherwise, so our Life-Rate Endowment Polices are within the reach of all, and there is no other company in the field that issues a policy of the same kind that will be paid in full as an Endowment in the same time, and at the same price, nor one in which the profits are so large.

WHAT THERE IS TO KNOW ABOUT LAMPS.

Almost goes alone.

All the care it wants is filling and wiping; five minutes a day is enough for that; no knowledge or skill required—the Pittsburg.

There are a dozen other central-draft lamps, all troublesome, foul by habit, with dirt-pockets, hard to clean, offensive in smell, exacting, perplexing, one must serve an apprenticeship at them, but they were excellent lamps last year.

The Pittsburg pours forth a flood of mellow light, as much as eighty candles together, and costs two-thirds of a cent an hour for oil, the lamp itself from $2.50 to $50, according to style—the cheapest as good as the costliest—not so pretty—best in the world. It is indeed a wonderful Lamp and costs no more than the troublesome ones.

You can see it at any good store where lamps are sold—a store six months behind is not a good store.

Two Sizes: One for family use, to hold three pints of oil and burn twelve hours; the other for public use, to hold a gallon, burn eleven hours, and give the light of three-hundred candles.

Three kinds of family lamps as to holders: vases, twenty-inch stands for the dining table, five-foot stands for the floor.

We will send you a primer; but buy of your neighbor merchant.

CONSTITUTION PUBLISHING COMPANY,
1891

Entered According to Act of Congress in the year 1891 by H. G. Saunders, at Washington, D. C., in the office of the Librarian of Congress.

INTRODUCTION.

THANKS to the rapid and excellent work of The Constitution Job Office, we are enabled to issue the ATLANTA CITY DIRECTORY for 1891 promptly on the first of the year.

The book has been gaining in bulk for several years past, and, in order to keep it from becoming unwieldy, the matter contained has been condensed (not abridged) as much as possible. It is printed on a much lighter and finer grade of paper, which somewhat reduces the size of the volume, enabling it to be much more readily handled. If the names increase next year in the same ratio as they have in the past—and they undoubtedly will—the next edition of the work (1892) will be printed in double-column brevier type, similar to the directories of the larger cities of the country.

The United States census taken June 1st gave Atlanta a population in round figures of 65,000, but the Directory canvass, made by careful and experienced men and taken five months later, shows the population at this time to be 84,640 within the city limits. Add to this the suburban inhabitants, and we find a total of considerably over 90,000.

It was noticed that during the canvass the enumerators found a smaller proportion of vacant houses than usual, despite the fact that nearly 2,000 new buildings were erected during the year. Yet, when even these were visited later, the greater number were found occupied, and in most instances by recent comers. Nearly three hundred new families were found to have located here during November and December, quite a large proportion of whom bore foreign (particularly German) names. This is significant, as heretofore the ATLANTA DIRECTORY has shown a smaller proportion of foreign names than any other American city of its size.

There are of course errors and omissions in this volume, although it is thought they have been reduced to a minimum; but it must be borne in mind that the information contained is obtained from nearly as many persons as there are names in it, and that it is barely possible that some one other than the publisher is responsible for such errors or omissions. This will be more easily believed when it is stated that 75,864 calls were made and over 500,000 questions asked and answered during the enumeration, and 13,690 calls were made to verify information after the regular canvass was completed. The percentage of change in the Directory in the year is 80, and to many it will seem almost incredible that in every 100 names in the 1890 Directory only twenty remain unchanged; yet, it is true.

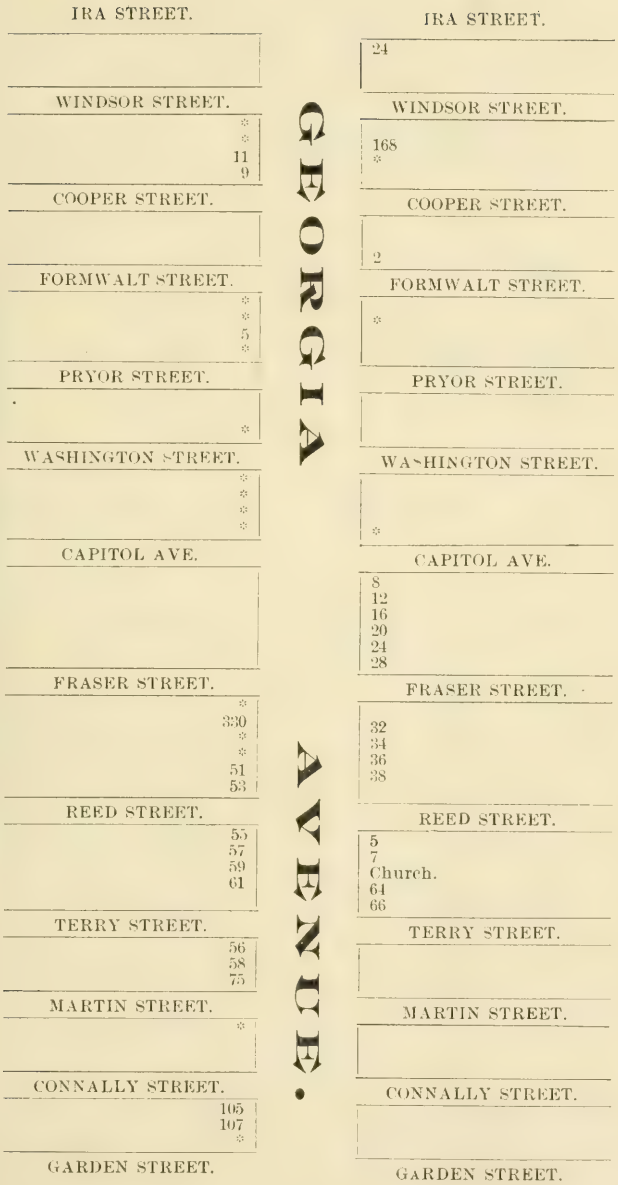

We desire to call attention to the fact that we have on file in our office, in the Chamber of Commerce Building, a complete Directory library. It is maintained at a considerable expense, and is designed for the free use of the public. Either the existence of this library is not known, or else Atlanta's business community is different from other cities, as the books are very seldom referred to, and then chiefly by traveling men from other places. In other cities these Directory files are constantly used, and there seems to be no reason why Atlanta should be an exception, and we hope that this reminder will save much correspondence with other cities for information which can be obtained from these Directories without expense or loss of time.

Respectfully,

H. G. SAUNDERS, Manager
R. L. POLK & Co.

P. S.—We had the following sentence electrotyped several years ago, and just insert it here now as a mere matter of habit. We shall preserve the electrotype so that we can use it again next year:

"We refer to street numbers, and think we are safe in the assertion, that Atlanta is one of the worst numbered cities extant. The outlying streets are the ones which need attention. If any one doubts this, let him take a walk down Terry street or Mills, Hunnicutt, Glenn, Georgia ave, Fowler, Pine, Bradley, Orme, McAfee, or inquire of any physician, policeman, mail carrier, Directory man, messenger boy, or any one else likely to have frequent need of finding persons by their addresses alone. We append a diagram of Georgia ave, which speaks for itself. It is all but impossible to construct a reliable Directory in view of such numbering as this. We have, however, done every thing possible to obviate the difficulty."

* REPESENTS BUILDINGS ENTIRELY WITHOUT NUMBERS. *

"LOW RATE TERM PLAN"

Of this Company. It is easier to place insurance on this plan than on any plan ever before offered, and the policy itself is the most liberal and equitable contract consistent with recognized business principles. The marked success already achieved by this plan shows that it fills a want long felt by the insuring public.

The Company also issues all approved forms of insurance.

Policies are non-forfeitable and indisputable. Claims are paid immediately on presentation of proofs.

BLAIR CAMERA CO., Boston

STEVENS

—AND THE—

HAWK-EYE · IN · AFRICA.

The great interest shown in the beautifully illustrated four page article by Thos. Stevens, descriptive of his experiences in interior Africa, upon the expedition to meet Stanley, as given in Harper's, Scribner's, and other leading periodicals for May, has led to their publication combined in book form.

Mr. Stevens describes in the same happy and interesting vein which characterized his "Around the World on a Bicycle," the personel and customs of an African expedition, a week's sport in the prolific game country adjoining the famous snow-capped mountain Kilimanjaro, with a valuable commentary on the latter; the killing of a huge African python, and other incidents of his trip.

He was provided with a Hawk-Eye Instantaneous Camera, and in consequence brought away a most unique collection of photographs, from which have been made the fine engravings illustrating his articles.

To show the wonderful progress which has been made in simplifying the art of photography, as exampled by the Hawk-Eye Camera, it may be stated that Mr. Stevens (who had never handled a camera before) was merely required to point the Hawk-Eye at whatever he desired to photograph, touching a button to momentarily uncover the lens, the instrument being loaded for taking a large number of pictures.

He gave the matter no further attention until his return to America several months later, when the sensitized film upon which the impressions or "exposures" had been made in Africa was removed from the Camera and the pictures finished up.

This publication is entitled "Africa as seen by Thos Stevens and the Hawk-Eye," and is sent post-paid by the publishers to all who will mention this publication the BLAIR CAMERA CO., Boston, Philadelphia and Chicago, at the nominal price of 20 cents.

The annual expense in connection with fire alarm is about $65,000. The force is paid as follows: Chief, $3,000 per year; foremen, $80 and $85 per month; assistant foremen, $75 per month; engineers, $80 and $85 per month; drivers, $65 per month; runners $50 to $60 per month. The Gamewell fire alarm system is used with 49 street boxes.

When fire is proclaimed, the alarm will be sent in from the box nearest the location of the fire. On opening the box directions will be found inside for giving the alarm. After pulling the hook once let go and under no circumstances touch it again.

The fire bells to announce an alarm from box 24 for instance, will be struck twice, and after a short pause, four; then in about a minute the alarm will be repeated until four alarms have been struck. Keys to box may be found in house nearest the box.
